Senate Is Near Final Action On Labor Measure

Leaders Hope For Final Action Today Or Tomorrow On Controversial Bill

SPECULATION ON POSSIBLE VETO

By FRANK B. ALLEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The GOP Senate leadership made new efforts to get final action today or tomorrow on the controversial labor bill and send the measure to conference.

Republican leaders saw a chance to get a closure agreement today despite the setback progress of the measure received last week when 12 Democratic senators blocked an agreement on voting time and tossed in their own substitute.

Policy Chairman Taft (R) Ohio, was confident that the Senate will give the one-package labor bill a two-thirds majority on its initial trip.

But Taft would make no forecast on whether the two-thirds majority still would be cast for the measure when it makes its expected return bearing a veto message.

Responsibility With Veto
He declared that if President Truman vetoes the bill, he must assume the responsibility if there is no labor legislation finally passed. Taft said he would make no attempt to frame a new piece of labor legislation.

Capitol Hill Democrats expect a veto, and are confident that the two-thirds vote to override a veto cannot be produced in the Senate.

Democratic senators see no chance that the conference will reach a compromise measure acceptable to the president. They doubt if he would approve even the milder Senate measure, which is certain to be "toughened" when it collides with the drastic Hartley bill in conference.

Meanwhile, American Federation of Labor President William Green declared in a radio address that passage of the pending legislation would bring on depression.

Pa Newc Observes

High school graduations are rolling around again. Numerous students are being noted on the streets wearing the traditional commencement period "dinks."

On a lawn along the Mt. Jackson road on Sunday afternoon we saw a patch of "mountain moss" showing up prettily.

Lines for pedestrian crosswalks were being painted on the downtown streets of the city, early this morning. Traffic was detoured around the workmen for a brief period until the paint had a chance to dry.

Driving through Ohio on Sunday, Pa. Newc observed a new type of warning sign for motorists has been installed along some of the roads in that state. The reflector type signs which gleam as they catch the lights from passing cars, carry a red background, while the white letters on the sign warn the motorists to drive carefully or take it easy.

Sunday night proved a banner night for one eyed drivers. The dangerous practice proves very hazardous especially on the highways when approaching cars are unable to detect whether the oncoming vehicle is a motorcycle or other vehicle.

Some farmers of the district, who have been patiently waiting to get the plows into their fields, took advantage of the good weather over the week end and worked until late Sunday evening to get a good start on the belated work.

New Castle and Lawrence county had the first real spring-like day of the season on Sunday. Near sum-

Investigators said she had been criminally assaulted.

Police declared that unlike other victims in a series of Los Angeles county sex murders since Jan. 1, she had not been mutilated.

They said they believed the woman had been murdered elsewhere and the killer had disposed of her body in the field. Fresh automobile tracks and footprints were found in the vicinity of the body.

Headed by William E. Erk, who was the first to board the bus, were also Mrs. C. H. Martin, Mrs. Jacob Emery and Mrs. Dilley, all of whom rose early to be on hand when the bus started out. They were joined by others along the way. Because workmen were white-lining the main street, the bus went up Jefferson street and over North street to East street and some who were planning to board the bus at Mill and Washington street failed to make connections. The bus was piloted by John Thompson. Regular operators will be M. J. Hunter and Robert Book.

Predicts Senate To Pass Tax Cut Of Four Billion

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(INS)—Sen. Millikin (R) Col., Senate Finance chairman, predicted today that the Senate will pass the GOP four billion dollar tax relief bill and also "make good" its promise of economies to permit a public debt reduction.

The Senator's prediction was made as Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, reportedly was trying to stir up opposition to Senate changes in the tax measure when the bill is sent to conference.

Knutson's committee met today to discuss means of revamping the nation's tax structures but there was little indication that he would receive support in any fight against the Senate bill.

Art Student Goes On Trial In Death Of Choir Singer

PLYMOUTH, Mass., May 12.—(INS)—A youthful Cape Cod art student was summoned to trial today for his life in connection with the strange sex-slaying of a pretty girl choir singer.

The case of Charles Russell Goodale, 26, of Onset, accused of the murder of Ruth McGurk, 25, of Cambridge, was called in the historic surroundings of the landing place of the pilgrims.

The killing of petite Ruth was the first of a long series of sex crimes which resulted in Bay State legislative action and widespread investigation as to the means of preventing such crimes.

A panel of 250 veniremen was summoned to Superior Court from which 12 men will be chosen for a jury and two men for alternates.

Second Phase Of Foreign Policy Will Be Started

Seek To Put Across Idea Policy Is For Economic Development Of Democracies

SPEEDY APPROVAL OF RELIEF BILLS SEEN

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(INS)—The senate today in a surprise move sent the 400 million dollar Greek-Turkish aid bill to conference and instructed its conferees to insist on the senate version of the measure.

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Speedy Senate approval of the Greek-Turkish aid and European relief bills was expected today as administration spokesmen opened the "second phase" of promoting President Truman's new foreign policy.

"Round Two"—already launched by the state department—is to put across the idea that the so-called Truman doctrine is a "positive" one grounded on economic development of Democratic countries and not primarily an anti-Communist drive.

House approval of the Greek-Turkish assistance measure by a 287-107 vote did much to clear the way for future steps.

Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich., foreign relations chairman, planned to call his committee together promptly to decide whether the 400 million dollar Greek-Turkish bill would be accepted in its house form without going to conference.

Changes Slight

Committee members indicated the house changes in the original senate bill were so slight that it might win instant approval and go to the White House. Vandenberg said he would consult Secretary of State Marshall before acting.

At the same time the GOP foreign policy leader pressed for a senate vote early this week on the 350 million dollar relief bill. It was slated to be called up as soon as the senate disposes of its labor bill, or Marshall before acting.

Supreme Court Gives Decision On Freight Rates

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, May 12.—(INS)—The Supreme Court today upheld an interstate commerce commission order equalizing freight rates on a national scale.

The ICC order which was accepted by a 7-to-2 decision of the high tribunal, would require a 10 per cent decrease in class freight rates in the South and West, and 10 per cent increase in the northeastern states.

The Supreme Court ruling affirmed a three-judge federal district court judgment sustaining the ICC order, from which 15 northern states and a group of western railroads appealed to the high tribunal.

U. S. Sends New Note On Korea To Soviet Russia

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, May 12.—(INS)—The United States today sent a new note to Moscow in an apparent effort to obtain further clarification of terms for joint American-Russian talks on Korea.

A State Department spokesman revealed that the U. S. embassy in Moscow had been instructed to deliver the new note to the Soviet foreign office.

The spokesman announced the action in response to questions by newsmen on whether Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's note on Korea last week was satisfactory to Secretary of State Marshall.

Moscow radio has claimed that Molotov's note voiced acceptance of an earlier proposal by Marshall for a full understanding between the U. S. and Russia prior to joint talks in Seoul scheduled for May 20.

The State Department official declined to amplify his announcement that the new note had been dispatched to Moscow. He said the note calls for another reply from Russia.

Negotiations continued throughout Sunday in the Western Electric case and were to resume this morning at the Labor department.

Trunk Murderess Winnie Ruth Judd Makes New Escape

Reported Missing From Arizona Hospital For Insane Early Today

KILLED TWO WOMEN SIXTEEN YEARS AGO

(BULLETIN, 2 P. M.)
PHOENIX, Ariz., May 12.—(INS)—Winnie Ruth Judd's third bid for freedom failed today.

The blonde trunk murderess of two women in 1931 escaped early today from the Arizona state prison for the insane at Phoenix, but was recaptured a few hours later.

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 12.—(INS)—Winnie Ruth Judd, trunk murderess of two women in 1931, escaped from the Arizona State Hospital for the insane early today.

Bloodhounds were being used in an effort to track down the escaped woman and state police and sheriffs were alerted throughout Arizona.

Dr. John Larson, superintendent of the hospital, said Mrs. Judd was last seen in her room, which she occupied alone, at 9:30 last night.

She was reported missing by another patient and a search of the building and hospital grounds immediately was launched.

Must Have Had Key
Dr. Larson said Mrs. Judd must have had possession of a key to escape unnoticed from her second-story room.

He said a Sunday visitor may have secured a key for the notorious patient who escaped the gallows for the double killing in 1931 by being declared insane.

Dr. Larson told International News Service:

"No trace has been found of the missing woman in the building in which she was confined. A few buildings on the grounds remain to be searched, but it is doubtful if she still is on the grounds."

He related that double windows which open into a woman's ward had not been tampered with. Only other route for her escape was through two locked doors and out the main entrance to the hospital.

Road Blocks Thrown Up
Road blocks were thrown up in the vicinity of the hospital and bus and train depots were checked by sheriff deputies.

It was Mrs. Judd's third escape. Her first escape was in 1939 when

Sex-Slayer Of Five-Year-Old Girl Is Hunted

LANSDALE, Pa., May 12.—(INS)—A painstaking search was underway today by state police in Montgomery county for the brutal sex-slayer of five-year-old Carol Thompson of Upper Gwynedd township.

Carol was criminally assaulted and strangled to death Saturday near her home after she accepted a ride in a stranger's automobile. Her battered little body, with part of her clothing ripped off, was found in a well less than an hour after she had been abducted.

The child's brother, William, Jr., six, told police a blond man in a "shiny black automobile" offered his sister a ride as Carol and William were playing in their wagon on an infrequently-used road.

Neighbors, who had seen the slayer cruising about the little community between Lansdale and Norristown also furnished police with a description of him and his car.

Now this, I'd say, is more like May, when May's what she should be; the sun is bright, the air is light, the weather's sixty-three. The garden stuff, and May today, is showing what she has in springlike stuff, which suits me fine. I'd like to add, for I am such a guy as likes his May days pleasantlike as they go marching by.

MANY INDUSTRIES USE ROUND-CLOCK ELECTRIC LIGHTING

WILMINGTON, Del., May 13.—(INS)—Electric lamps are putting in a longer work week claimed Samuel G. Hibben. He is the director of applied lighting at Westinghouse and blames the above condition on windowless factories and towering office buildings.

He said, "around-the-clock lighting is now routine in many industries." Lighting would be better if it didn't cost so much, Hibben claimed. Westinghouse is cutting cost by increasing efficiency of light sources and reflectors. And, he added, "for every such improvement there should be a corresponding increased usage of light."

MORTICIAN HAS TROUBLE CRACKING STURDY BANK VAULT

TOWNVILLE, Pa., May 13.—(INS)—Willis L. Arnold, Townville funeral director, could have used a little training as a safecracker.

Arnold purchased the former Townville bank building for use as a funeral home, but couldn't budge the big bank vault—anchored in concrete and reinforced with steel rails. An air hammer made little impression on the concrete. Other methods failed. Finally Arnold used dynamite and after several blasts the vault came free.

mer temperature prevailed, and there was no rain (or snow).

Forsythia bushes are in bloom around the city. A few days the city will be in sections with hundreds of these blooming bushes.

New bus routes were established this morning as planned and several sections of the city are now included in the service that have not heretofore been reached.

The new bus route for East Side patrons went into effect at 7 a. m. today. Buses traveling the newly established route carry the designation "Butler avenue."

Frost was again noticeable on Sunday morning, the low temperature being 27 degrees, according to the U. S. weather observing station's figures, which may have caused additional damage in spots. The weather warmed up very agreeably on Sunday, however, and Pa Newc would not be surprised to see a lot of activity among the gardeners this week, with dry weather in the offing.

One of the meanest thieves in a long, long time has been reported to Pa Newc. A local youth in attendance at an outdoor function over the week-end felt someone place their hand over his mouth and while so doing quickly removed his glasses and disappeared into the crowd. The boy, who is sadly in need of his glasses, reported the incident to local authorities.

be taken up sooner if the labor debate threatens to drag all week.

The Greek-Turkish bill returned to the senate with little revision. The house inserted a requirement that civilian personnel going to Greece and Turkey be "screened" by the FBI. It eliminated a senate amendment requiring the chiefs of the FBI, the State Department and the War Department to be confirmed by the senate.

Senate sources said that Edwin C. Wilson, U. S. ambassador to Turkey, will supervise the distribution of 100 million dollars in military assistance to that country thus requiring no senate confirmation in that case. There was at least a strong possibility that the senate would forego the right to confirm the appointment of a chief for the mission to Greece, which gets 300 million dollars—equally divided between military and economic aid.

MUSIC CLUB CHORUS SCORES NEW SUCCESS

melodious soprano, "O Country Bright and Fair," James Hayden, the bass solo "Zion Is Captive Yet," and M. Paul Conner the tenor solo "Golden Jerusalem" and as a quartet sang "Here Life Is Quickly Gone". Their clear tones in arias demanding versatility of interpretation in a wide range added accent and contrast to the works as a whole.

One of the most effective choruses was the interesting double chorus rendition of "There Stand Those Halls on High". For this the chorus divided during a short intermission with half going to the rear of the church auditorium to sing from there. This, added to the focal character of the music itself, gave the effects of a hymn of joy from all sides.

Superb Counterpoint
There is superb counterpoint in the chorus "City of High Renown" sung a cappella. The quality of composition in this oratorio is one exacting in its demands on the chorus, soloists, accompanists and director alike and into the preparation for performance go many hours of practice and the closest coordination in performance. Under Mrs. Caldwell's skillful direction the performance was one that will long be remembered as outstanding in the music club's many fine contributions to the city's musical life.

The accompaniment for the oratorio was played by Edwin Lewis, organist, and Mrs. Richard K. Allen, pianist. Both sound musicians, and with a fine grasp of the technical and interpretative essentials of the accompaniment, they gave a dynamically varied and architecturally imposing reading of the score.

Their exquisite sense of phrase and their high musical intelligence were evident throughout the performance and contributed greatly to the finish and intensity of the rendition.

At the final rehearsal in the afternoon, on behalf of the chorus, Mrs. Caldwell was presented with a gift and a bouquet of flowers by Mrs. James W. Moorehead.

It is due to Mrs. Moorehead's unwavering efforts through the years that the chorus has been organized and that it has progressed to its present high standard. It is her encouragement and enthusiasm that has had such an influence on the chorus for its continuous and unremitting efforts. Mrs. Moorehead is a past president of Music club.

The performance Sunday evening was sponsored by the New Castle Ministerial Association. Rev. Burr R. McKnight, D.D., pastor of the First Methodist church, gave the invocation. Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church, made the announcements, and Rev. Robert Meade Patterson, D.D., pastor of Central Presbyterian church, pronounced the benediction.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

Columnists Not So Influential

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Apparently, the Republican idea was that when the New Dealers were repudiated at the polls, automatically their propaganda facilities would disappear and their public effectiveness be curtailed. But that notion turned out all wrong. There are today more New Deal left-wingers astride the channels of communication than before.

That is Frank R. Kent in his syndicated column. This same theme has been sounded, by an interesting coincidence, by Arthur Krock of the New York "Times," by Mark Sullivan in the New York "Herald-Tribune," and by others. It is echoed in a national magazine which editorialized about "lame-duck columnists."

Now Messrs. Krock, Kent and Sullivan are eminent and important men who have been writing in the press for many, many years. The latter two are widely syndicated. When they join in chorus in an opinion, it has the weight of experience and erudition behind it.

The opinion they express in this instance is that "New Deal writers," whatever that may mean, are preventing the "Republicans" from carrying out their program in an orderly and effective way by spreading "propaganda" against the virtues of the Republican objective. It may be presumptuous of me, a comparative newcomer in this business, to raise a doubt.

Yet it does seem that these eminent men put a little too much weight on the influence of writers and commentators—even writers as eminent as they are. Surely they must recall that, for the 12 years Franklin Roosevelt was in the White House, they were almost without exception opposed to his policies. Particularly Messrs. Kent and Sullivan followed an unflinching line of opposition. They delivered frequent jeremiads on the evils of Roosevelt and all his works. In this, of course, they coincided with the editorial opinion of a large proportion of the press.

They were especially venemous in their criticism on the three occasions when Roosevelt was running for re-election. Yet it seems difficult to discover any effect that these and similar strictures may have had on the course of political events in those years.

Perhaps it is nearer the truth to say that commentators may inform their readers—and there are those who honestly try to perform that function. They may flatter them or irritate them by expressing a point of view. But as to exerting a positive influence on the course of political events, there is a great deal of room for doubt.

To use the phrase "lame-duck columnist" seems a little odd, for these three men themselves were for nearly 12 years lame ducks under that criterion. So was the magazine that coined the phrase.

Actually it seems to me to suggest a curious attitude of mind. It suggests that we are to vote our thought and opinion in accord with the election returns. If that is how far we (Continued on Page Seven)

"Red and Yellow Catch a Fellow."
Pretty girls have been singing this rhyme for centuries. Maybe they knew what they were singing about. Lemons and oranges and grape fruit and limes and some others are known as citrus fruits. They provide a very valuable vitamin. Red and yellow tomatoes have lots of it too. This vitamin helps to make girls pretty. It helps to keep them healthy too.

That fellows need it too so that the girls will want to catch them. Good health and good looks and good manners and good habits make girls and fellows worth catching.

The Boardwalk

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

THE CHILD WHO IS A DAWDLER

If one could see a score of children (and their parents) selected at random from the many thousands who dawdle on school mornings and drive their mother almost to distraction, what a picture it would be!

Some mothers have told me they must lie down for an hour or so after pushing their child out the door for school. What about the child? How does he feel? What must be his outlook for school success for the day? Even the bus driver and teacher may have to bear some of the annoyance. One mother writes:

Seven-Year-Old Son

"Dear Dr. Myers: I am writing you to get your advice about my seven-year-old son. He has a most annoying habit of dawdling while getting ready for school. If I didn't keep after him and help him dress, he'd never get to school. I am at my wit's end to know what to do. His father gets very angry with him and threatens to spank him, which only upsets the boy."

"I dislike scolding him to much as I feel that it gets him off to a bad start. A neighbor has even seen him crying on the way to school and when the boy was asked the trouble he said he was afraid he would be late to school."

Setting The Clock

"I have tried the method of setting the clock for him, which does no good, as he seems to have no thought of time. He just can't seem to keep his mind on dressing. He puts on an article of clothing and then sits and gazes on into space as if his thoughts were miles away. And when spoken to he jumps as if being awakened from a dream. He is very imaginative, and is forever asking question about the earth and sun and moon, etc., and is very interested in ships and trains and planes. He also asks about the people of other countries and has expressed the wish to go to Holland to see the windmills and dikes."

"He likes books and when he isn't daydreaming he wanders around the room picking up books or other things to look at. I have even seen him, while dressing, if spoken to, start taking his clothes off and get back into his pajamas as if, as my husband says, he is in a fog."

"He is an obedient boy and never gives us any trouble. He likes school and gets very good marks. Can you give me any help on this matter? I enclose a stamped envelope."

It is fine for a child to have a vivid imagination and get on well at books. But as he must live in a world with other people, he will have to learn to conform to some of their ways and to have consideration of other persons.

He is in great need of normal fun (Continued on Page Seven)

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

General Marshall's election to the class of '48 at Wellesley indicates our peaceful intentions... So far as we know, no Russian general has been invited to carry a daisy chain.

Not that Wellesley is all-female any more... Phil Spitalny has the only all-girl aggregation left and I hear he's intervening a bass player who shaves.

Harvard is thinking of going co-ed permanently. But if any female barges into the Harvard club of New York, the Yale club is going to be filled with Cambridge refugees.

In ordinary circumstances that would be a fate worse than death but in these special circumstances it would look fairly inviting.

Anyway an offer has been made to provide the U. N. with a symphony orchestra of 90 men... That's one for each nation and 35 spares in case anyone walks.

The feeling is that the U. N. needs bassoons more than buffoons.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

DON'T FORGET YOUR "THANK YOU"

"I have noticed a conspicuous lack of politeness among the masses. 'Thank you' is almost a forgotten word. Won't you give us all a little advice on the needed use of this phrase of courtesy?"

Answer: You are right! In our hurry to go nowhere, we do forget our manners. "Thank you" should be used profusely on all occasions demanding some form of recognition of extended courtesy.

Thank the members of your household for even the slightest favor. Thank the waiter who serves you, the clerk who shows you his goods, the stranger who gives you street directions—thank everyone for every small or large courtesy.

Even the most important executive is not exempt from thanking the office boy on his routine duties. I have a friend whose little boy of three years has had the word "thank you" so instilled in his head that there are certain words and gestures that automatically call for this expression of gratitude. When anything is handed to him, he never forgets his "thank you." In fact, he even says it when he hands something to someone else.

This is so because when his mother gave him anything she said "thank you," thus reminding him that he must always say it to her. So now he offers thanks whenever he either gives or receives—which isn't a bad habit after all.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

This column is for women only.

A millinery fashion show was held in New York's Hotel Sheraton recently and the very latest creations by Lilly Dache, John-Frederics, Sally Victor, Anita Andra, Emmine, Lenesta, Mary Goodfellow and Mago Hayes were shown.

To me those names don't mean a thing, but when my wife came back from the show I noticed that her mouth was still watering.

And here are a few of the hats, as described to me by that wife of mine. Please forgive me if the descriptions are not quite in your own language. I take them from hasty notes I made as Mrs. Brandeis was raving to me about them.

Hats trimmed with or made of maline, net and veiling seemed to promise coolness and lightness, she told me.

John-Frederics treated an oversized cartwheel of natural straw with a band of stiffened net around the brim and hooped the crown with a drape of net.

Do you follow me? Anita Andra used a dotted pink veiling to make an entire hat, shirring the wide brim in puffs. (When a hat costs $65 puff is spelled puff.)

Lenesta made a feathery wreath of green and white in a profile silhouette that dipped at one side.

Facing the top of a wide brim of natural shantung straw with layers of maline that shaded from beige to cocoa was Mary Goodfellow's idea and Mago Hayes had brought a cloche of white net with a high crown shirred in two pouffed (note the spelling) layers.

Now we come to Lilly Dache: A side-swept brim of striped blue and white straw. The open crown was draped to one side, while the brim was looped in a tie. Then there was another one, a wheat millan, stressing width at the sides and expressing the new trend in a fuller, draped crown.

I do hope that all these descriptions mean something to you. To me they are just so much double-talk.

However you should have seen my wife's eyes sparkle as she told me about those "divine chapeaux." She has not looked that way since she first confessed that she loved me.

Now for Sally Victor: One hat she showed was a white felt breton with a bulky cuffed brim, lightened with a drape of white chiffon.

And Emmine (not Emma or Emmy, my wife insisted, but Emmine), had women who cannot wear large brims. A white one had the crown draped with jersey, while another in black satin was edged with black lace.

I could go on with this but I have to stop. It is almost lunch time and Infantino, the hat cleaner around the corner, promised my hat back for twelve o'clock.

A brown Fedora, brim turned down, ribbon slightly frayed, bought in 1933. Original price $4.65. Price of cleaning, 75 cents.

The World and the Mud Puddles

TOO MUCH WASTE

War traditionally is waste. Billions in money and resources and the labor of millions are poured out in competition in killing men who are considered "expendable." There is little economic value in any of the weapons of destruction once war ends. Because time is a vital element people generally are reconciled to the idea that expense must not be spared to achieve necessary production. So governments, including our own, have been open-handed in expenditures for war needs.

But it is shocking to learn that frequently the necessity of government and national security is utilized as a source of blood-sucking profits. It is especially shocking that when hundreds of thousands of our best are sacrificing life and limb for national defense a small element of our people should be coming vast profits. A recent report of the maritime commission to a committee of Congress seems to form the basis of a nation-rocking scandal if and when the details are officially given to the public.

LIE

"How are you?" he asked, and I smiled and told a pretty lie. For 'twas easier to tell I was feeling very well. And, to me, 'twas very clear That was what he wished to hear. Had I told him of my pain, He would never asked again. Had I answered with a sigh, Evermore he'd pass me by. Let if he should say "Hello" I should tell a tale of woe. So the truth I didn't tell When I said: "I'm very well."

Great Game Of Politics

Should Limit Foreign Relief

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Whether or not the Senate restores the $150,000,000 which the House cut from the foreign relief bill (and, since General Marshall's appeal, this seems likely), it certainly should retain the House amendments and insert several very vital ones which the House ignored. In other words, the time has come (two years after the war) when very real restraints should be put upon the demands for charitable relief from the United States.

THERE are a number of things to be said about this pending bill. In the first place, it should be understood that it sets up a new formula for foreign relief, largely devised by Mr. Herbert Hoover at the request of President Truman. It takes the place of the outrageously incompetent and mismanaged UNRRA. In the second place, restoration of the $350,000,000 does not mean that that much will be spent. Senator Taft, who favors restoration, does not believe more than the House's $200,000,000 will be needed, points out that the $350,000,000 is merely an authorization. In the third place, if all the Hoover recommendations are incorporated, the money will be used in a way to provide the maximum relief with the minimum waste by the most trustworthy people.

AMONG these recommendations are amendments to take away the blank-check nature of the bill by limiting relief to certain specified countries, providing essential safeguards concerning dollar exchange and for insisting that the money be spent for United States products and transportation. There is a further recommendation, which the House adopted, eliminating handling of the money by foreign agents and insisting on other obvious steps to insure that it will be honestly and capably used. It is also suggested that the President be given power to withdraw shipments from countries which produce enough grain from the 1947 harvest to supply themselves for a six-month period. But, perhaps, the most trenchant amendment is one to meet the very clear fact that we cannot much longer continue to carry these enormous foreign relief burdens which increase our own cost of living by undue drain on our supplies and deprive the country of needed improvements for our own people.

WE should, of course, be resolute in the alleviation of suffering abroad, but we should invoke every possible pressure to see that these demands are to the lowest levels and that every effort is made by the receiving countries to increase their own productivity and improve their own administration. As to the latter, it is pointed out, some of the demands now made on us are due to the failure of governments to collect surplus food from their own farmers and allowing it to disappear into the black market. The only way to stop this, and kindred forms of evasion, is promptly to serve notice that large scale, unrestricted charity is at an end and that repayment in some form must be undertaken.

IT HAPPENS that all countries receiving supplies from us resell them to their own people as a necessary part of their rationing system. Therefore, to effect at least a moderate pressure in the direction of repayment, the following amendment has been recommended by Mr. Hoover: "All receipts from sales of these supplies by governments to their citizens shall be paid into a repository in that country, designated by the United States, to the credit of the United States. Such sums may be used by the United States for any expenditures on its own account within that country, and in any event, shall not be withdrawn from that country until, in the view of the President, it will not embarrass the economy of such country. In case of repayment in kind, a proportional amount of such deposit shall be released."

IT IS true, these deposits may not materialize as much of an asset. They would, however, prevent Communist-dominated governments, such as Poland and Hungary, from using the funds thus collected for the strengthening and spread of Communist control. Another recommendation is that no relief be sent to countries whose armies are in excess of police needs. The argument here is that it is simply unbearable that American taxpayers should be called upon to pay for relief in countries with such excessive military establishments. Such establishments not only absorb their resources and deprive them of the manpower for producing their own supplies but threaten the peace of the world.

WITH these amendments, together with the provision for the appointment by the President of a $10,000-a-year administrator to be confirmed by the Senate and supervised by the Secretary of Agriculture, it is intelligent and practical, as well as enlightened self-interest to enact the bill with the full authorization of $350,000,000. Without these restrictions and safeguards, the whole proposal is weakened and made dubious. The House has partially adopted some, ignored others. The Senate can fully justify the full amount if it adopts them all. They are largely the product of the ablest and most experienced man on the subject of food relief in the world—one whose unselfish patriotism is beyond question and whose information is fresh, direct and firsthand.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

Disclosure that Communist leaders in Romania are recruiting a "security" army for the avowed purpose of eliminating all "reactionary" elements has brought into focus today one of the most difficult problems facing post-war Europe.

This is the continued existence of rag-tag and bob-tail elements on the fringes of politics who are always ready and willing to serve a cause for personal profit.

Most significant factor in the revelation is that the Communists are calling upon former members of the notorious Iron Guard to contribute their brawn, muscle and hidden armaments to the campaign. There probably never has been a tougher gang of roughnecks anywhere than Romania's Iron Guard.

Its leaders hitched their wagon to the star of Nazism and Fascism when that blighted orb was in its ascendancy.

Mass Sadism

Murders, kidnappings, torture and blackmail were part of the regular curriculum and it was a common saying in Europe that if Adolf Hitler's Brownshirts wanted to learn the finer points of mass sadism, Bucharest was as good a training ground as anyone could desire.

This was only a half-truth, for the Iron Guard at least did not have a Dachau for the elimination by gas poisoning of 248,000 Jews and political prisoners. Nor did it have a Rudolph Hess, who indignantly denied he slew four million, claiming that two million was the correct figure.

But the Iron Guard was plenty tough and particularly skilled in what might be regarded as the more artistic approaches to human savagery. The Nazis killed their victims and their flayed skin for lamp of the once notorious Iron Guard to contribute their brawn, muscle and hidden armaments to the campaign. There probably never has been a tougher gang of roughnecks anywhere than Romania's Iron Guard.

Its leaders hitched their wagon to the star of Nazism and Fascism when that blighted orb was in its ascendancy.

Hardly Less Pleasant

And hardly less pleasant was their meticulous habit of removing the skin of a man, behead him and in the belief this type of amputation would have a salutary effect upon his political convictions.

In the days of its infamous power which saw Romanian Premier Ion Duce killed in cold blood on a Bucharest railway platform, most of the Iron Guard's victims were Liberals and anti-Fascists.

Now, according to the purge re-

Admiral Nimitz Strongly Favors Naval Reserves

'Must Pay Price Of Peace,' Says
War Hero As Nationwide
Campaign Begins

The new Naval Reserve will prove to be a vital force in the lives of every American, Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, USN, stated Sunday at Washington, commenting on the present campaign to recruit the reserve to its full quota of more than a million men.

"Often in peacetime," he declared, "we Americans are inclined to forget the price of peace. There seems to be a tendency to forget that those same elements of strength that obtained victory will continue to be factors in obtaining a just and permanent peace for all concerned."

"That is why the new Naval Reserve will be a vital force in the lives of every American. That is why every Naval Reservist will be, in truth, a factor in world affairs."

"Our postwar economy could not, of course, stand the burden of a navy as large as the one we possessed in 1945. Yet it is clear that this force for good must somehow be kept 'in being'. The logical solution then, is a small, compact ready fleet backed up by a large, well-trained Naval Reserve."

"The new Naval Reserve provides excellent educational opportunities for the men and women who will compose its ranks. And these people will, in turn, contribute to their communities by reason of their self-improvement and group readiness."

"Our efforts to obtain this needed support for the regular navy will reach their peak during Naval Reserve Week, commencing May 18. Our goal—the enrollment of 1,143,000 reservists—will be achieved if the citizens lend to the drive their active and whole-hearted support."

Young Boy Faces Task Of Learning To Walk Again

Six-Year-Old Told He Has Had Both Legs Amputated Because Of Explosion

CHICAGO, May 12.—(INS)—A six-year-old Chicago boy today faced the task of learning to walk again.

The youngster, Dale Rickey, recently heard for the first time that a gasoline explosion April 1 had cost him both his legs by amputation.

Howard Rickey, 37, father of the boy, broke the news to Dale at Chicago's Swedish Covenant hospital. The father said:

"You'll have to learn to walk all over again."

Dale asked:
"How am I going to do that, Daddy?"

Then his father explained, carefully:

"Well, I'd rather sit." For the first time, too, the splints, which had been used to keep the boy from realizing that he had lost his legs, were removed, and Dale saw the bandaged stumps of what were his legs.

He had to be told finally, because he must undergo further operations for fitting artificial limbs.

Dale's mother was informed earlier this week that her son had lost his legs. The information was withheld from her until she had given birth to another child.

El Salvador will establish a national school of agriculture to train students in scientific methods of crop and cattle production.

Large Fund Sought For Slippery Rock Teachers College

SLIPPERY ROCK, May 12.—Improvements to Slippery Rock State Teachers college, requiring an outlay of $1,127,500, are requested in Senate Bill 717 which has been presented to the Senate and House appropriation committees.

The bill, according to Dr. Dale W. Louk, president, names each of the 14 state teachers colleges and indicates for each the total asked for plant, rehabilitation and replacement and improvements of institutional equipment.

The measure is expected to be reported out of committee early next week.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive

Thousands Now Regaining Old
Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Wealthy Dodger Of Draft Fights Deportation Order

NEW YORK, May 12.—(INS)—Efforts of Serge M. Rubenstein, 38, draft dodger serving a two and a half years term, to avert deportation after serving his sentence has received a cool response from the government.

U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGolue, served with a petition in Rubenstein's behalf, said:

"I shall oppose it very, very strongly."

Rubenstein, an international financier, eligible for parole after serving 10 months in Lewisburg, Pa., penitentiary, also was fined $50,000 after conviction for filing false statements with his draft board.

He recently paid the fine with government bonds.

Rubenstein's sole chance to avert deportation lies in Federal Judge J. F. T. O'Connor, who presided at his trial in New York when sentence was passed April 23.

Under federal law, an alien found guilty of moral turpitude may be deported unless the presiding judge within 30 days after date of sentence recommends otherwise to the U. S. attorney general.

FISHERMAN GETS SHOCK

A great, flat fish, round in shape and with a long, narrow tail, was found in the net when some Scottish east coast fishermen drew in their seine the other day, Edinburgh reports. They were mystified and when one incautiously touched it he got a sharp electric shock. The fish was an electric skate, rarely found in those waters.

The jumping mouse measures only about three inches from snout to tip of tail, but can jump from eight to 10 feet.

States Tighten Christmas Tree Cutting Rules

HARRISBURG, May 12 — Indiscriminate cutting of Christmas trees is being discouraged by some state governments in the interests of conservation by requiring official certification of the origin of all trees sold.

The great number of trees cut for the 1946 Christmas has prompted action, it was reported.

Pennsylvania does not require registration or certification.

A restriction by law on the commercial use of trees furnished by the State Department of Forests and Waters for reforestation purposes is about the only check the commonwealth has on Christmas tree cutting and sales.

BOAT MOVES CRAB-FASHION

A fishing boat that moves sideward as well as forward and backward is the latest invention of Norwegian marine engineers, who excel at designing ships for specific purposes. Oslo reports that in this strange craft a propeller mounted amidships can move the vessel from port to starboard—a development extremely helpful for herring fishing.

See that he learns promptness in other matters at home, such as appearing properly groomed on time at meals. If he appears late, after a preliminary warning to get ready, have him sit in a chair away from the table for 20 minutes while the family dine.

Announce to him on the evening before a school day: "From now on I am not going to help or hurry you to get off to school. If you are not ready on time you will stay home for the day sitting in a chair without amusement for fifty minutes at a stretch (with ten minutes' recess) all day while school is in session." Police Seeking Five Bandits In Holdup Of Club

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—(INS)—Police today sought five bandits who beat a cook at the Ashbourne Country club in nearby Elkins Park and escaped with $2000.

The quintet entered the club a short time after a dance broke up yesterday morning and bound and gagged four employees. Another worker, Larry Gonzalez, sustained a possible skull fracture when the robbers yanked him from bed in his quarters at the club and beat him.

Jack Breen, 30-year-old bartender, said he was positive one of the bandits was David Almeida, who is wanted for the chain store robbery-slaying of Cecil Ingling, Philadelphia policeman.

Breen said he knew Almeida from the latter's visits to the club about a year ago to see Edward Hough—then a bartender—who is currently being held in connection with Ingling's slaying.

The bandits took $930 from Gonzalez, $160 from Breen and spent over an hour hacking open a small club safe, which contained more than $1000.

mittee—confirming in most details a previously disputed statement—says in substance that nineteen shipbuilding corporations made total profit of more than three hundred fifty-six million dollars, on total investments of approximately twenty-three million dollars. Even allowing for taxes and renegotiations, the statement sets forth, this ratio is practically accurate. Some of the concerns dealing with the government, it should be said, record legitimate returns on their investments. But others are so disproportionate as to be out of all reason. As an example it is stated in the commission report that the Kaiser Co. Inc., on a one million dollar investment, netted nearly forty-four million dollars on war contracts. Another, the California Shipbuilding Company, is reported to have cleared in excess of forty-four million dollars on a six hundred thousand dollar investment.

These inordinate profits were paid for by the taxpayers and bond buyers of the United States. They come from the payroll deductions of millions of workers and the income taxes of millions of business and professional men and women, from the profits of honest corporations. It was profits such as these which catapulted the national debt to the highest ever known to any country and which helped to put a mortgage of some two thousand dollars on every man, woman and child in the United States.

Government Inefficiency
Some of this enormous waste was due to stupidity and traditional government inefficiency in business. Some of it was due to the absurd cost-plus system, which incited some makers of war materials to run up costs to the highest possible figure. But much of it was due to downright graft and governmental favoritism, bestowed through an army of "fixers" operating in the national capital and selling "influence" with the New Deal administration.

Details of this colossal scandal will have to wait the full investigation of the new Congress. But enough is hinted in the latest statements of the Maritime Commission to bring an overwhelming revulsion against the New Deal administration for this debauch of greed in a time when American homes were overshadowed by the sacrifice of sons and brothers and husbands and fathers.

The first universal measuring microscope to be made in Russia has just been produced in the Leningrad optical equipment plant.

have gone in accepting the totalitarian philosophy, then we are in a bad way. Thought and opinion are not subject to the vote of a majority. Or they should not be, in any informed democracy.

Within Republican national headquarters here, there are some who take the line that Messrs. Krock, Sullivan and Kent have expressed. It has come also from Senator Robert A. Taft, who speaks invidiously of "New Deal writers."

The natural instinct of the politician is, of course, to look for an alibi. President Roosevelt frequently showed his irritation at the insistent attacks on his policy. If things aren't going too well, the politician wants to aim a shotgun at some convenient victim.

In this case, the aim is poor. It is obvious, by mathematical demonstration, not only that the majority of American newspapers are conservative but that the majority of commercial which is syndicated is also in that vein.

If one may disagree with so eminent an authority, it sounds a little silly to talk about New Deal left-wingers at the channels of communication. It sounds particularly odd in view of the fact that several radio commentators who took a liberal or pro-labor tone have now been replaced on the network by men who are more cautious or more conservative.

The Soviet press is, of course, happily free of opposition opinion. It is one continual chorus of praise and perfection. But that scarcely seems a worthy ideal.

Vet Announces Three Dimension Portrait Photos

Pittsburgh Ex-G.I. Got Idea From Maps And Pictures Used
During War

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—(INS)—Three-dimensional portrait photographs have arrived.

And all because of the war. George Terzis, an ex-G.I. of Pittsburgh, today announced development of a system of producing photos that have apparent depth. He got the idea, he said, from army maps and pictures while overseas at Allied supreme headquarters.

So far, as is known, the Pittsburgh studio with which he works will be the first to produce the three-dimensional photos.

Terzis said the camera used in the work is an ordinary portrait camera. However, it is mounted on a power-driven carriage that will rotate in an arc about the picture subject. An electrically-operated shutter will remain open while the camera moves, and a pruner will move the film about a quarter of an inch, slowly, behind a screen.

"This gives a multiple exposure," said Ed Vitarelli, partner of Terzis in the plan. "The screen before the film produces tiny lines on the negative. The print will appear distorted by itself, but when it is placed behind a plastic covering fitted with lenticular (lens-like) lines, you get the three-dimensional effect."

The process takes no longer than making old-style portraits. Terzis said he and Vitarelli would make three-dimensional merchandise displays, called "Transparencies," that can be used in store windows or show cases. These are lit from behind.

He said they also would make lampshades with three-dimensional pictures on them, and Christmas cards and religious figures.

Winter Wheat Crop To Exceed Million Bushels

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(INS)—The U. S. winter wheat crop is scheduled to exceed one billion bushels this year, setting a new national record.

A crop prediction, prepared from field reports by Agriculture department experts, estimates the 1947 harvest at one billion, 25 million bushels, 152 million bushels over last year.

The bumper crop prediction was heartening to international food allocators faced by a continued critical need for cereal crops in nations still unrecovered from war damage.

WESTINGHOUSE TO MAKE EQUIPMENT FOR SUBWAY CARS

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—(INS)—The Westinghouse Electric Corp. disclosed that work has started in its Pittsburgh plants on equipment for 200 new subway cars that will provide New York's transit system with smoother and faster schedules. The new cars—first ordered since 1940—are expected to be in operation in 1948.

H. E. Dralle, manager of the transportation appliance section, said the new cars will be driven by four 100-horsepower motors and each will be equipped with an electric dynamic braking system which will permit stops at a 50 per cent higher rate.

The new cars will be more than 60 feet long and cost $66,000 each.

Indianapolis To Get Historic Flag From Philippines

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(INS)—The American flag that was lowered in the Philippines on July 4, 1946, in the ceremony symbolizing withdrawal of American sovereignty will be turned over to the Indiana War Memorial at Indianapolis.

President Truman today ordered display of the flag in the home state of Ambassador Paul V. McNutt, who brought it from the Philippines for presentation to the president.

The president asked Ambassador McNutt to arrange for the flag's display at the memorial erected by the state of Indiana to veterans of World War I and recently rededicated to veterans of World War II.

The flag was woven by Filipino women from the 50 provinces of the Philippines and presented to President Truman by President Manuel Roxas.

File Heavy Suits In Tanker Sinking

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—(INS)—Suits totaling $622,000 were on file in San Francisco federal court today on behalf of survivors and families of men lost when the Tanker Deconhill broke in two several hundred miles off Honolulu last March.

Named as defendants were the Keystone Shipping Company of Philadelphia, operators of the vessel for the War Shipping Administration; the Deconhill Shipping Company of San Francisco, which operated the ship for three years prior to the accident; and the Kaiser Company, Inc., of Portland, Ore., builders of the tanker.

Eleven men lost their lives when they left the broken ship in a lifeboat. Twenty-two others were rescued by an Army transport.

Herbert Resner, attorney for the families, said five additional suits would be filed next week, each demanding $100,000 and bringing total damages sought to more than $1,000,000.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 12.—(INS)—Gov. Joseph C. Mahaffey of the Panama Canal Zone arrived in Cambridge Saturday to confer with a group of army engineers and civilian consultants on the advisability of improving or enlarging the Panama canal.

Definite plans for increasing the canal traffic facilities have not been made, but several are under consideration.

Gov. Mahaffey joined a group of 10 army engineers from the Canal Zone and six consultants at Harvard university.

Meetings at Harvard, which began Friday, have been concerned with the results of geological tests and other factors.

To Face Charges Of Using His Son As Knife Target

MONTEBELLO, Cal., May 12.—(INS)—Charles F. Coulter, 23-year-old mechanic, will appear before Judge Paul J. McIvor today to answer to a felony charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Coulter is accused of throwing a heavy knife repeatedly at his 2-year-old son, Danny.

The mechanic's wife, Evelyn, 20, signed the felony complaint. She charged that her husband, who she said had been drinking, used little Danny for a target as the child sat in his high chair. Mrs. Coulter showed officers ten deep dents in the chair where the knife had struck.

The child was unharmed.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, May 12.—(INS)—All of Hollywood's gold couldn't lure Broadway's Joan McCracken into a long-term movie contract.

Joan returns to New York City August 17, ready for the stage, when her six months M-G-M deal for "Good News" is completed.

She said she would never sign one of Hollywood's regular seven year contracts because it would restrict her freedom too much.

She added: "But, don't get me wrong. I like Hollywood. I've enjoyed working in this picture and I hope I'll be able to make other pictures in the future."

"However, I like the stage, too. I wouldn't like to be in a position where I couldn't do a show if I wanted to."

"I just couldn't feel so hemmed in."

Walter Slezak is another star planning to go east. He's hoping for a two months' vacation on his farm in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, as soon as he completes "The Pirate," about a month or so hence.

Walter, who took up flying in a big way 18 months ago, said he and his wife and two children, will make the trip in his own plane. But, it will be a brand new one. Said Walter:

"I've been flying in an army surplus plane. I have ordered a new one and I expect it'll be here in plenty of time."

Cornel Wilde and his beautiful wife, Patricia Knight, hope to get a three weeks vacation in Honolulu next year.

"We've been trying to make it for three years," Cornel told your reporter on the set of Columbia's "It Had To Be You."

"It's not even going to cost us anything, because I got it for doing some advertising."

"But, we've never had a free months to take advantage of it. In the three years all the vacations we've had is five or six days in New York City, Nassau and Palm Springs."

A vendetta, in its original sense, was the custom by which the nearest kinsman of a murdered man undertook to continue the quarrel and avenge the death. Later it became an obligation for the entire family to assume.

In the republic of Colombia, South America, in 1945, were found the remains of 100,000,000-year-old reptiles and fossil bones of a 30,000,000-year-old marsupial wolf.

Survey Y.M.C.A. Camp For Summer

Staff members of the central branch of the Y. M. C. A. were at the association's summer camp site Monday, surveying the establishment for the opening of the season in July.
Any repairs or building necessary to ready the site for occupancy will be reported and action taken soon, it was announced.
The camp will be a busy place this summer—opening with a 4-H club group meeting there this month and ending with the New Castle high football squad training period in late August.
What is thought to be the first 5-cent automobile fare in the United States was originated in Phoenix, Ariz., when the original "itney bus" was started. Similar systems soon were adopted in many other cities.

Welfare Board Pays $558 Hotel Bill For Family

NEW YORK, May 12.—(INS)—New York's welfare department disclosed a bizarre case today whereby it paid out in one month $558 in hotel rent and food bills for a family of six that had been evicted for non-payment of rent while on home relief.

A spokesman for the department admitted the case was unusual but said it "could not afford to have them live on a park bench during the month of December" when the incident took place.

He said the only place the department could find for the family to live was a $9-a-day hotel suite. Money for food was provided at the rate of $1.50 a day per person.

The family, whose name was withheld, has been on relief in one form or another since 1933. The father is said to be tubercular and alcoholic and the mother in poor health.

The case came to light when the father was charged in children's court with willfully contributing to the neglect of his four children.

The charge was dismissed with the recommendation that the father get psychiatric treatment for alcoholism and the children be sent to a children's center.

Northern Baptists World Relief Plans

Delegates To Atlantic City Convention To Take Extra Shoes —For World Relief

From Dr. Stanley I. Stuber, public relations director of Northern Baptist Convention, 152 Madison avenue, New York City, comes word that "each delegate attending the Northern Baptist convention at Atlantic City May 19-23, is being asked to come with an extra pair of shoes—to be given for world relief needs.

The project is being sponsored by the Baptist Youth Fellowship. Booths at the convention will be set up for the shining of the shoes by officials and delegates. The collection of shoes will be sent to Church World Service warehouses for shipment abroad.

The young people also plan a demonstration in behalf of supplying eight carloads of relief cereal for Europe and Asia. This will take the form of a parade with signs and banners.

A project to secure 10,000 CARE packages will be initiated at Atlantic City by the open of the convention. Samples of four different types of food and clothing packages will be on display.

France Confers Highest Award On Winston Churchill

PARIS, May 12.—(INS)—France gave its highest military award Saturday to Winston Churchill, Britain's wartime prime minister.

The beaming Churchill blushed as Premier Paul Ramadier kissed him on both cheeks and pinned the Medaille Militaire on his chest.

A crowd of thousands gathered in the streets around Invalides Palace roared a welcome to Churchill as he arrived for the ceremony.

The ceremony took place in the gloomy courtyard of the palace where Napoleon was buried. A small statue of the "Little Corporal" still frowns down on passers-by from a niche.

The award received by Churchill was created by Napoleon.

Churchill's wife and two daughters, Mrs. Vic Oliver and Mrs. Duncan Sandys, beamed proudly as the colorful military pageantry unfolded.

The entire French cabinet, high French and British officers and members of the diplomatic corps were among the spectators.

Churchill wore a uniform and insignia of an honorary colonel in the Seventh Hussars.

Many Attend Annual Service Sunday At Margaret Henry Home

Mayor John Haven Among Speakers
On Program Paying Tribute Of Late Founder Of Home

A large assemblage of friends of the Margaret L. Henry children's home, Friendship street, gathered on the lawn of the home Sunday afternoon for the traditional Motherer's Day program and tribute to the late Margaret L. Henry.

The ladies and men of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, New Castle lodge, No. 455 drill team, dressed in drill uniform, led by Captain
Frances Johnson and Captain Jack
Sutton, were in charge of the program of the afternoon.

At two o'clock the assemblage united in singing "America", after which Rev. Thomas J. Jones of the First Congregational church pronounced the invocation.
Speaking briefly, Rev. Jones lauded the work of the late Miss Henry in establishing the home, tracing her work from a meager beginning until the time of her death. He spoke highly of the work of Mrs.
Lida J. Green, who has taken up the mantle of the late founder, and of the effective work she is doing.
The children of the home placed flowers on the memorial stone on the lawn in memory of Miss Henry,
as is their annual custom.

Mayor John F. Haven was introduced as principal speaker of the afternoon, and he fittingly chose to speak on "Mothers", paying tribute to all mothers and the part they must play in the home and the effect that they have upon society in rearing good citizens.

Thomas Cunningham of the F. O.
E. responded for the lodge, speaking concerning the work of the children's home and the need of the community's loyal support in the work that is being accomplished.
Ellis McCracken introduced each speaker of the afternoon.

Tribute to Mrs. Green was paid by Mrs. Samuel Jackson, speaking for the ladies. Charles Read, president of the home board, thanked the Eagles for their interest in the home. Rev. Jones pronounced the benediction.

The program committee included
Mrs. Alvin Herberg and Ellis Mc-Cracken, who had charge of arrangements.

A noted English grammarian is said to wear masks when people visit him, the masks depicting the mood he happens to be in. He probably has a special Gargantua the Gorilla number on hand for the benefit of bill collectors.

Back in Forever Amber's day the society of swells of England wore masks when they went to the theater. This kept the gossip columnists guessing just who was with whom.

After studying the jaded pans of the average night club crowd one must come to the conclusion that the mask idea should be revived.
Masks would be a decided improvement.

Zadok Dumkopf has a dandy mask he has left over from last Halloween and plans to try it out at the next party—if anybody ever invites him to one again.

The mask is virtually all whiskers which gives Dumky an excellent excuse for not imbibing any of those atomic cocktails people serve nowadays.

The mask is also equipped with dark blue-lensed spectacles which, fortunately, enable Z. D. not to be able to see some of the guests present.

Pie-platter ears and a nose the size, color and shape of a Jumbo
Superba tomato complete the mask.
It must have been designed by a half-wit artist during a nightmare.
But Dumky doesn't mind. On him
it looks good.

Efforts are now being made to have the word "dear" removed from salutations in business letters. It may be old-fashioned but somehow it seems a lot more diplomatic than just plain "Hey, you!"

The box car shortage must seem overexaggerated to that western

A social period will close the eve-

Mothers Honored By Ecclesian Club

Rev. Fr. Victor Green, O.F.M. Of
St. Fidelis Seminary, Principal Speaker

Ecclesian club members honored the day for all mothers by offering their intention at holy mass, receiving holy communion in a body at the 8 o'clock mass Sunday in St. Joseph's church.

Rev. Fr. Francis C. Streiff, pastor, as celebrant, gave an inspiring sermon on mothers.

Immediately following, the Ecclesian club's annual communion breakfast was served at 9 o'clock in the club rooms to guests numbering 100. The tables were nicely arranged with spring flowers, and the meal was prepared and served by ladies of the Ecclesian club. Fr. Streiff gave the invocation and also benediction.

The principal speaker after breakfast was Rev. Fr. Victor Green, O. F. M., of St. Fidelis Seminary, Herman, Pa. Fr. Green gave a fitting tribute to all mothers, extolling their virtues and kindness. He later touched on the subject of Communism versus democracy—emphasizing the fact that the seed of democracy was Christianity, the latter whose roots are embedded in the homes.

Fr. Streiff also made appropriate remarks at this time. Jake DePonso, chairman of the event, was assisted by Frank Haas, president of the Holy Name society, and Raymond McAuley.

Britain To Seek Another Large Loan From U. S.

LONDON, May 12.—(INS)—The Conservative party implied today that Britain must receive another large United States loan to stave off a grave economic crisis next year.

The Conservatives made public their "industrial charter," a platform for the next general election in 1948 or early in 1949 and stated: "How far we are able to achieve our export target and the expansion of world trade which will make that target possible must depend largely upon the willingness of the United States to play the role of international creditor, as we did before the war."

The charter assailed the economic and "class war" policies of the labor government and promised "true leadership" if the Conservatives are returned to office.

Mercer Traffic Deaths Mount

MERCER, Pa., May 12.—Traffic accidents on Mercer county highways have claimed 11 lives in four months and if the rate is continued the county's all-time yearly record of 40 fatalities will be broken.

This year's total equals the number of persons killed during the same period in 1942 which closed with 36 lives being taken. It is one more than in 1941 and four more than in 1940 when the all-time yearly record of 40 was set.

Last year, when the total was 39 deaths, four were killed in the first four months while in 1945 none of the 20 fatal accidents occurred during the same period.

Report Tubeless Tires Being Made

AKRON, O., May 12.—(INS)—Tubeless tires—the goal of tire manufacturers since the beginning of the automotive era—were in production today at the B. F. Goodrich company plants in Akron.

Announcement of the new tire was made by company officials, who said it was perfected after more than three years of engineering and research.

The tubeless tire has the same safety features of the puncture-sealing inner tubes, with improved riding qualities, high bruise resistance and remarkable ability to retain air pressure, according to Goodrich Vice President James J. Newman. The tire also embodies rayon cord construction.

In addition to a high speed road testing program in the southwest, tubeless tires are in service on a midwest city taxicab fleet, on state police cars and a number of privately-owned passenger cars.

Newman said that the tire will be offered for only limited sale at this time. He said applications have been filed with the U. S. patent office.

Washington Students Present Final Plays

Ninth Grade Students Give Final Performances Prior To Leaving For Senior High

Two one-act plays were presented by the ninth grade graduating class of George Washington junior high school prior to their leaving for the New Castle senior high school.

The two plays were comedies and brought forth many laughs from the audience. The graduating students ably took their parts and presented their final but excellent performance before graduating on to senior high school.

The first play, a comedy, "Oh, Johnny" by John Randall, involved the trials and tribulations of a younger and older brother. Complications arose and were later solved by the following participating in the cast: Orchid, the maid, by Jean Gresh; Mrs. Turner, mother, by Nancy Reed; Dick Turner, older son, by Paul Gibson; Alice Turner, sister, by Roberta Spears; Johnny Turner, younger brother, Paul Doerr; Martin Willis, Alice's friend, George Kegg; Susan Smith, refugee from England, by Dorothy Knittel.

The second presentation, a farce, "Aunt Miranda's Will" by Le Romas Rose, was all about the money of Aunt Miranda, willed to a girl named Jean, but who really turned out to be a boy called Gene.

Plan Extensive Study In Nation Of Thunderstorms

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—(INS)—Thunderstorms are in for an investigation. For years these fearsome, fascinating summer invaders have been allowed to come and go with little check on their behavior.

But this summer the amateur weathermen of America are going to look into their habits and characteristics.

They want to find out about them so much that a more scientific approach may be made in coping with such weather phenomena as thunder, lightning, wind, turbulence, icing, rain and hail. That's going to take quite a lot of investigating.

They need help.

All who would like to serve as volunteer thunderstorm observers in their communities are requested to write: Thunder and Lightning, Amateur Weathermen of America, the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia 3, Pa.

All you need is a reasonably accurate watch and a pair of eyes, and when you blunder on some thunder all you need do is watch it.

'One Man Army' Now Successful Candy Store Owner

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—(INS)—Eighteen months after his discharge one of World War II's toughest fighters is a success at one of the most peaceful occupations—candy store proprietor.

Dick Bauer, suburban Brookline's "one-man army", has little time to recall his tank corps experience fighting from North Africa to Germany's surrender.

His only reminder of the "shooting war" is the "occasional pop" of bubble gum in the jaws of some young customer.

Bauer received a rousing welcome when he returned to his home 18 months ago. Thousands of his neighbors turned out with civic leaders and the high school band to honor their leading hero.

When all the shouting was over, Dick shoved his five purple hearts, three bronze stars and silver star into a drawer and got down to work.

He made a loan and launched his confectionary business. He said "it was tough at first" with all the shortages—including bubble gum—but he stuck it out.

Three months ago, things began to "break" for him. Now his success has been such to permit him to make another loan to open a branch store in another section of town.

To mark the opening of his new store, the ex-GI who earned and fought his way from private to first lieutenant, gave away a case of bubble gum to a horde of kids.

The small fry, he said, are still his "best customers".

Scientific experiments disclose that flies, bees and many other insects have "built-in gyro-stabilizer" equipment.

State Ice Cream Production Still Highest In Nation

HARRISBURG, May 12.—While the manufacture of ice cream declined in most states during the month of March, compared with the same month last year, Pennsylvania held its own with production of 5,600,000 gallons, the State Department of Agriculture announced following Federal-State surveys.

Pennsylvania ice cream production in March, 1947, was 23 per cent higher than in February and exactly the same as in March, 1946. The amount was 80 per cent above the war time March average of 3,115,000 gallons. For many years this state has led all others in production of ice cream, department records show.

WASHINGTON.—(INS)—The Attorney General of Nevada ruled recently that California may legally tax property of the Nevada Fish and Game Commission which is located in California according to the Federation of Tax Administrators. The ruling was based on a U. S. Supreme Court decision that a state retains its boundaries even when jurisdiction of a portion of its territory has been ceded to another state.

First Woman On Philadelphia's Science Council

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—(INS)—Dr. Ruth Patrick has answered a question that the glass-makers of New Jersey have been asking for a hundred years.

She is the first woman to sit on the scientific council of Philadelphia's 136-year-old Academy of Natural Sciences. And she established the age of some sand in South Jersey.

It is called Cohansy sand, and supports 25 glass houses from Bridgeton to Toms River.

In studying diatoms found in the sand, she identified them as belonging to the late Miocene Age, 12 million years ago. Diatoms are fossils of microscopic one-celled plants.

The glass-makers want to know the age of sand because the knowledge comes in handy in studies being made of the distribution of the sand in other regions.

In private life Dr. Patrick is Mrs. Charles Hodge IV, associate professor of biology at Temple university.

HOT-FOOT BRINGS FINES

The South African version of the hot-foot brought $20 fines to Henry Jackson, 22, and Ernest Kareise, 23, in Kingwilliamstown. They put wicks of paper between the toes of August Lutske, aged 79, while he slept and set fire to them. When he awoke with his feet burning, the two youths were in the same room but did not help him put out the flames. "You must be taught to respect old age," said the judge.

Interest In Baseball Shown By Tremendous Crowds At All Parks

Chicago Cubs Win Two From Reds To Grab First Place

Total Attendance At All Major League Parks Sunday 254,984

CARDS TOP BUCS, SECOND GAME TIED

By LES KONKIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 12.—The fact that nearly every team in the majors is sticking close to the leaders probably is partially responsible for the huge crowds which baseball is drawing these days. Total attendance at the big league games yesterday amounted to 254,984, an average of more than 31,000 a park.

Every team still has a potential pennant chance. In the National League, the pace-setting Cubs are only 6½ games in front of the tail-end St. Louis Cardinals, and the world's champions are a cinch to get out of the cellar during their coming home stand from the way they have been picking up lately.

In the junior circuit the Athletics, in seventh place, trail the leading Detroit Tigers by only 4½ games.

Cubs Take Lead

The almost daily changes in the first-place standings are keeping the interest of the fans at fever heat. Yesterday the Chicago Cubs took over first place in the National League by downing Cincinnati twice, 6 to 3, and 4 to 3 in 10 innings, while Brooklyn was dropping two games to the Phillies, 7 to 3 and 5 to 4.

The Dodgers dropped from first place to third, while the Boston Braves wound up in second place by defeating New York 11 to 3 after losing the opener to the Giants 8 to 1.

Cards Trip Bucs
The Cardinals outgamed Pittsburgh 10 to 6, but the Pirates, helped by Hank Greenberg's homer, negotiated a 3-to-2 tie in the seven-inning nightcap.

Detroit took a strangle hold on first place in the American League by trouncing the Chicago White Sox twice, 10 to 0 and 9 to 3, after losing the opener to the Yankees 4 to 0.

Indians Scalp Browns
The White Sox flopped all the way from second place to fifth, Cleveland took over the runner-up spot by burying the St. Louis Browns under a 16-to-1 landslide.

Boston's Red Sox caulked from sixth to third place by staggering to the wire with an 8-to-7 verdict over the New York Yankees.

The Athletics blanked Washington 4 to 0 behind Bob Savage but Walter Masterson pitched and batted the Nats to a 2-to-1 win in the nightcap.

Bob Upton, of Swedesboro, N. J., is the only football player on Penn State's 1947 baseball squad.

WILL STAGE WORKOUT

The First U. P. Softball team will stage a workout at the Boyles avenue field at 5:30 o'clock tonight.

Charley Hileman, lanky Jeannette, Pa., senior led the Allegheny College basketball scorers, last winter and now is playing No. 1 on the Gator tennis team.

City League Launches 1947 Schedule Sunday

COLUMBUS CLUB GRABS OPENER

Christopher Columbus Club baseball team won the opening game in the 1947 city baseball league Sunday from the new entry St. Margaret's 6 to 3 at the E.A. field with a large crowd attending.

Penwell was the winning pitcher but had to be rescued by Monk Rainey who pitched the final six innings and turned in a swell job. Penwell developed a sore arm in the third inning.

St. Margaret's was held scoreless until the eighth inning. Heavy hitters in the game were Cassella for the losers and Ernie Adamo for the winners. Jimmy Tropes made his debut as Columbus manager in a most satisfactory manner.

Illinois Solon Seeks To Block Rocky Graziano

State Senator Miller Offers Resolution To Bar Graziano From Chicago Ring

PRESSURE GROUPS EXERTING POWER

By CHARLES EINSTEIN
(International News Service Staff Writer)

CHICAGO, May 12.—Do not send to ask for whom the bell tolls, but there were still those who claimed today that it may not toll for Rocky Graziano—at least, not in Illinois.

That would be the brass bell beneath Chicago boxing rings, which has been banging itself silly for one "plate" after another ever since Joe Louis and Jim Braddock staged the last title bout in Chicago 10 years ago.

Rocky In Trouble
Rocky, the alleged naughty fellow from New York's tawny Brownsville sector, was in deeper trouble than ever with the Illinois lawmakers at Springfield today. Just to complete the idyll, the Messrs. Irving Schoenwald and Arthur Wirtz, co-promoters of the scheduled July 16 middleweight title rematch between Graziano and Tony Zale, found themselves at odds with the usually placid State Athletic Commission in Chicago.

All of which doesn't mean the fight won't be held in Chicago. It undoubtedly will.

Blocking Pressure
In Springfield, however, Representative Harold Blomstrand (R) Chicago told newsmen that "outside pressure groups" were blocking introduction of Sen. Peter J. Miller's resolution to bar all fighters suspended in any other state.

This resolution, it might be added, is not aimed at Zale, who never did anything to anybody with the exception of having knocked out numerous fellow men, including Graziano, in lawful pursuit of his occupation as middleweight champion of the world.

The measure was directed at Graziano, suspended New York State for failure to disclose a proffered bribe.

Resolution Sidetracked
Sen. Miller's resolution has been neatly pigeonholed in committee, but Rep. Blomstrand's blast Tuesday brought the thing out in the open once more.

Miller is still waiting to hear from the attorney general as to whether a mere resolution can affect the State Commission, which has already okayed Graziano as a fit prospect for Illinois boxing rings. If a resolution isn't strong enough, Miller indicated recently he's ready to offer an amendment to the state boxing law.

One other bill and one other resolution, both pertinent to investigation of Graziano's scheduled appearance and current status, are also in committee, both having been introduced by Sen. Miller.

Rickey Disposes Of Howie Schultz

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—(INS)—President Branch Rickey of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who must unload considerable excess talent including extra first basemen before May 15, sold Howie Schultz, elongated first sacker, to the Phillies Saturday for a reported price of $50,000.

Schultz came to Brooklyn from St. Paul in 1943. Saturday's transaction comes on the heels of the sale of Kirby Higbe and four other Dodgers to Pittsburgh.

Jackie Robinson, negro star, has been playing first base for Brooklyn this season, while two veterans, Frank McCormick and Nick Etten, have been holding down the initial sack for the Phils.

Faultless Wins Preakness Race

Jet Pilot, Derby Winner, Fourth On Fast Track; Phalanx And On Trust Beat Him

NEW YORK, May 12.—The Preakness must have proved that the best thing to do when in doubt is to bet Ben Jones, and pray for a fast track.

Faultless virtually came right out and told everybody what he would do in the Preakness on a fast track by finishing a neck and a nose behind Jet Pilot and Phalanx in Kentucky Derby mud. He can't run in clungy footing. He can fly when it is dry.

His close up third in the Derby, it is evident now, meant that he was running almost strictly on fine condition. So bet Ben Jones, the veteran trainer from Parnell, Mo., who has been winning the big ones for years. Alas, it's too late now.

Jet Got Tired
The big mistake about all this is that too many of us wait until now, after the Preakness has been won by Faultless for Warren Wright's Calumet farm, to see what should have been obvious right after the Derby a week earlier.

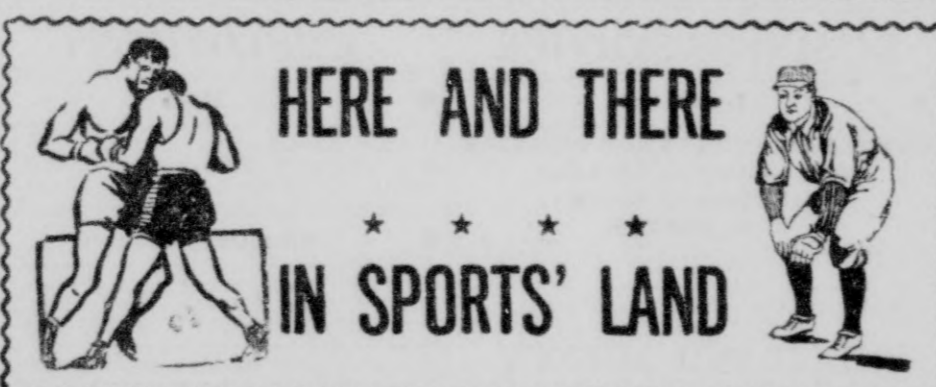

In Saturday's Preakness, Jet Pilot, in Elizabeth Arden's Main Chance farm, was an extremely tired horse at the finish, back there in fourth place behind Faultless, On Trust, the winner of the Santa Anita Derby, and Phalanx, winner of the Wood Memorial in close to record time.

Holland Wins Langhorne Event

LANGHORNE, Pa., May 12.—(INS)—Bill Holland of Bridgeport, Conn., set his sights on the 500-mile Memorial Day classic at Indianapolis today after copping the 20-mile opening feature at Langhorne Speedway.

Some 33,000 fans saw Holland cross the finish line two lengths ahead of Tommy Hinnershitz of Oley, Pa., despite a broken radiator rod and motor trouble.

Walt Brown, of Philadelphia, and Joie Chittwood, of Reading, early pace-setters, both were sent to the pits with motor troubles.

TWELVE Lawrence countians have seen service in the National and American leagues, according to Old Timer who provides Here and There with their names. And among the 12 is Lefty Minner now in the throes of making good with the Brooklyn Dodgers. The first to hit the big show was Joe Quest who played with the "Chicagoes" in 1876. Later, Charlie Bennett caught for Detroit of the National league in the 80's. He was later sold to Boston where he caught the great Kid Nichols. His baseball career ended when he lost both legs under a railroad train. Robert Lincoln Lowe played second base in the National league in the 90's and wound up his playing career with the Detroit Tigers in the American league. He was the keystone man on one of the greatest infields and which was composed of Tom Tucker, "Link" Lowe, Herman Long and Billy Nash. Hugh Duffy, who compiled the highest batting record of all times (.438) played the outfield on this team. "Link" is also co-holder of the world's record of hitting four home runs in one game and is also the holder of the most extra bases for one game.

Old-Timer next mentions—Callahan. "I do not recall his first name" Old Timer writes, but adds "he played with Chicago sometime in the 90's or early 1900. Fred Ulrich caught the Brooklyn team when they were known as the Dodgers and Jack (Rooney) Rowan pitched for the Cincinnati Reds when Clark Griffith was the manager. Griffith once said that Rowan was the fastest ball pitcher of all time and this included Amos Rusie of the old Giants. Walter (Hub) Hart caught for the Chicago Cubs in the early 1900's. He was on the receiving end for Mordecai (Three-Fingered) Brown and was a teammate of the world's greatest double-play infield—Tommy Tucker to Everett (Coke) (Shreck) Schreckengost caught for Connie Mack's Athletics in the early 1900's. His bid to fame was that he was the roommate and catcher for the one and only Rube Waddell whose fame is lasting. Harold (Had) Haid pitched for the St. Louis Gas-House gang in the 1930's and Terry (Cotton) Turner of Ellwood City played shortstop for the Cleveland Indians. Hack Wilson, also of Ellwood City, played the outfield for the Chicago Cubs in the late 20's and early 30's and nowadays Lefty Minner is pitching for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

To salesman: The Tony Zale vs. Cliff Beckett fight was accredited by the Youngstown Vindicator and New Castle News as ending in the sixth round because Beckett was unable to answer the bell for the sixth. . . . Sugar Ray Robinson has announced his intention to retire from welterweight ranks at the end of 1947, and campaign as a middleweight. . . . "Sportsmanship in collegiate sports has deteriorated to the point where such behavior threatens to destroy the best in the social and moral values to be derived from the athletics program." This charge was contained in a preliminary report of the committee on the objectives of the section of physical education and sports in New York. The committee's report, made public in New York, is headed by William L. Hughes, Ph. D., of Temple U. and the section, by Delbert Obersteuffer, Ph. D., of Ohio State. The report decries "all too numerous incidents of bickering. . . fights, arguments and mere demonstrations of rowdiness" as well as what it called "a national scandal involving 'fixing of contests'." It asked college officials to "refrain from gambling on games and to lower the now overly high emotional tone accompany athletic contests."

NEW YORK, May 12.—Leo Durocher isn't letting any of that Brooklyn grass grow under his feet while serving out his season's suspension. Branch Rickey got back to town Wednesday from a business jaunt and he and Lippy scheduled a conference—as they say in the Dodger bleachers—on Durocher's return to the Brooklyn helm when his suspension is up.

It doesn't matter that he has the old urge to see the Dodgers in action, especially in the first big series with the Cardinals at home. How About Me
According to Lippy, he decided on his current visit to his old haunts principally to talk to the Dodger proxy about his future status. The atmosphere should be favorable if the Dodgers continue to play the way they did in the last half of Tuesday's game.

There will be time for a lot of talking between jousts with the Cardinals and Durocher probably will not be as reticent as he is with the scribes about certain phases of his suspension.

Conduct Is Good
Apparently Lippy still has a great deal on his chest. He declared flatly that his conduct was above reproach before his suspension and while staying away from some aspects of the case, in accordance with Commissioner Chandler's edict, nevertheless filled in part of the missing story.

For instance, Leo disclosed what transpired at the Oakland, Calif., huddle with Chandler last winter. Warned Durocher Leo said that Chandler wanted to warn him from associating with certain West Coast agents and had assured the ex-Dodger manager that he had done nothing wrong until then.

Chandler even put his arm around Durocher's shoulders and told him, according to Leo, that he wanted to forestall any act by Durocher that might lead to punishment, and the meeting ended amicably. Said Lippy:

"From that day on I stuck to the straight line."
Durocher also cleared up a few other loose ends of the story. These were:

1. He doesn't think his marriage to Actress Laraine Day brought about the suspension because of the unfavorable publicity.

2. Durocher is not interested in becoming an actor's agent or even taking a stab at the movies himself during his suspension.

Ken Heintzelman Sold By Pirates

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—(INS)—Ken Heintzelman, one of the Pittsburgh Pirates' few left-handed pitchers, today was en route to Philadelphia to join the Phils after his sale by the Bucs.

General Manager Roy Hamey of the Pirates said the 31-year-old hurler was sold for "more than the $10,000 waiver price."

Heintzelman had been with the Bucs seven seasons, and had spent three years in the armed services. In that time he won 37 and lost 43 games for the Pirates. Oddly, his "cousins" in the league were the champion St. Louis Cardinals, who he beat 11 times while losing 9. In his last start against them last August he shut out the Cards, 3-0, on two hits.

Favor Montgomery To Defeat Larover

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—(INS)—Bob Montgomery, Pennsylvania-New York lightweight champ, was a 12-5 favorite today to trounce George Larover in their 10-round non-title rematch at the Arena tonight.

The 28-year-old negro bobcat narrowly eked out a win over Larover, a fellow Philadelphian, at West Springfield, Mass., last summer. Monty expects to weigh in at 148—three pounds less than his opponent.

The Bobcat has scored two knockouts on the West Coast since his last meeting with Larover, while Big George pulled himself out of the doldrums by entering the ring as a substitute to score a surprise decision over Pittsburgh's Juste Fontaine.

Juniata Cards Titan Gridders

HUNTINGDON, Pa., May 12.—(INS)—Juniata college Saturday announced a seven-game schedule for the 1947 football season.

The only non-opponent listed was Alliance college, Cambridge Springs. The Juniata Indians were being coached by William R. Smaltz, former Penn State college ace, to open against the Westminster college eleven October 4 on home territory.

Sons Of Italy Meet Wednesday

There will be an important meeting of the Sons of Italy sports teams with the club officials and Frankie Ross as chairman at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, it was announced by Secretary Ray Micaletti. All members of all teams are to meet.

All junior and senior baseball players are to meet at the club at 6 o'clock this evening, it was announced.

DUROCHER THINKS BUMS HAVE CHANCE FOR PENNANT
NEW YORK, May 12.—(INS)—Leo Durocher, suspended Brooklyn Dodger manager, said Friday he thinks the Dodgers have a good chance to win the pennant.

He also said he thinks Jackie Robinson, Dodgers' negro first baseman, will make good, and that Burt Shotton, current Dodger pilot, is a great manager.

Durocher said he had had an offer to assist coaching Harvard's baseball team. He also said he had other offers from various sources and expects soon to accept one.

Naturalize 3,047 In Eleven Years

Figures For County Show
Large Number Become
Citizens Of U. S. Here

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

While there will be no formal exercises marking "I Am An American" Day in Lawrence county this year, the fact that it occurs in May, seems to be enough reason to show some facts here concerning the naturalization of citizens in this county.

Back in 1936 a rush of applications for citizenship started and continued through the war years. In 1936 there were 199 new citizens made here and in 1941 the figure had climbed to 551. In the eleven years starting in 1936 through 1946, a total of 3047 men and women were granted citizenship in this county according to figures compiled by Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts John A. Edgar. The year 1941 marked the peak, possibly because of the war, although the applications had been made five years before. For some reasons the figure dropped to 196 in 1942, went back to 317 in 1943 and 280 in 1944. In 1945 it dropped to 146 and in 1946 there were only 46 citizens made. This undoubtedly because the war had stopped immigration to a large degree.

The 3047 new citizens probably represented a score of nations. The British Isles, the continental European countries, everything save Asiatics and for a time Germans or Italians, or other people belonging to hostile nations.

Few people realize it but a Chinese can now become an American citizen. In 1940 a law was passed permitting Chinese to become citizens but they are the only Asiatics given the privilege. In addition to the new citizens, 123 persons were repatriated, that is their citizenship was restored after they had lost it. Usually the reason was that a woman who was a citizen had married an alien before 1922 and lost her citizenship. Since 1922 such a woman does not lose her citizenship.

DRIVES TRUCK TO FIRE STATION TO PUT OUT BLAZE

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—(INS)—Fred Allen (not the radio comedian, but a Pittsburgh garbage truck driver) didn't want to bother the fire ladders too much when his truck caught fire.

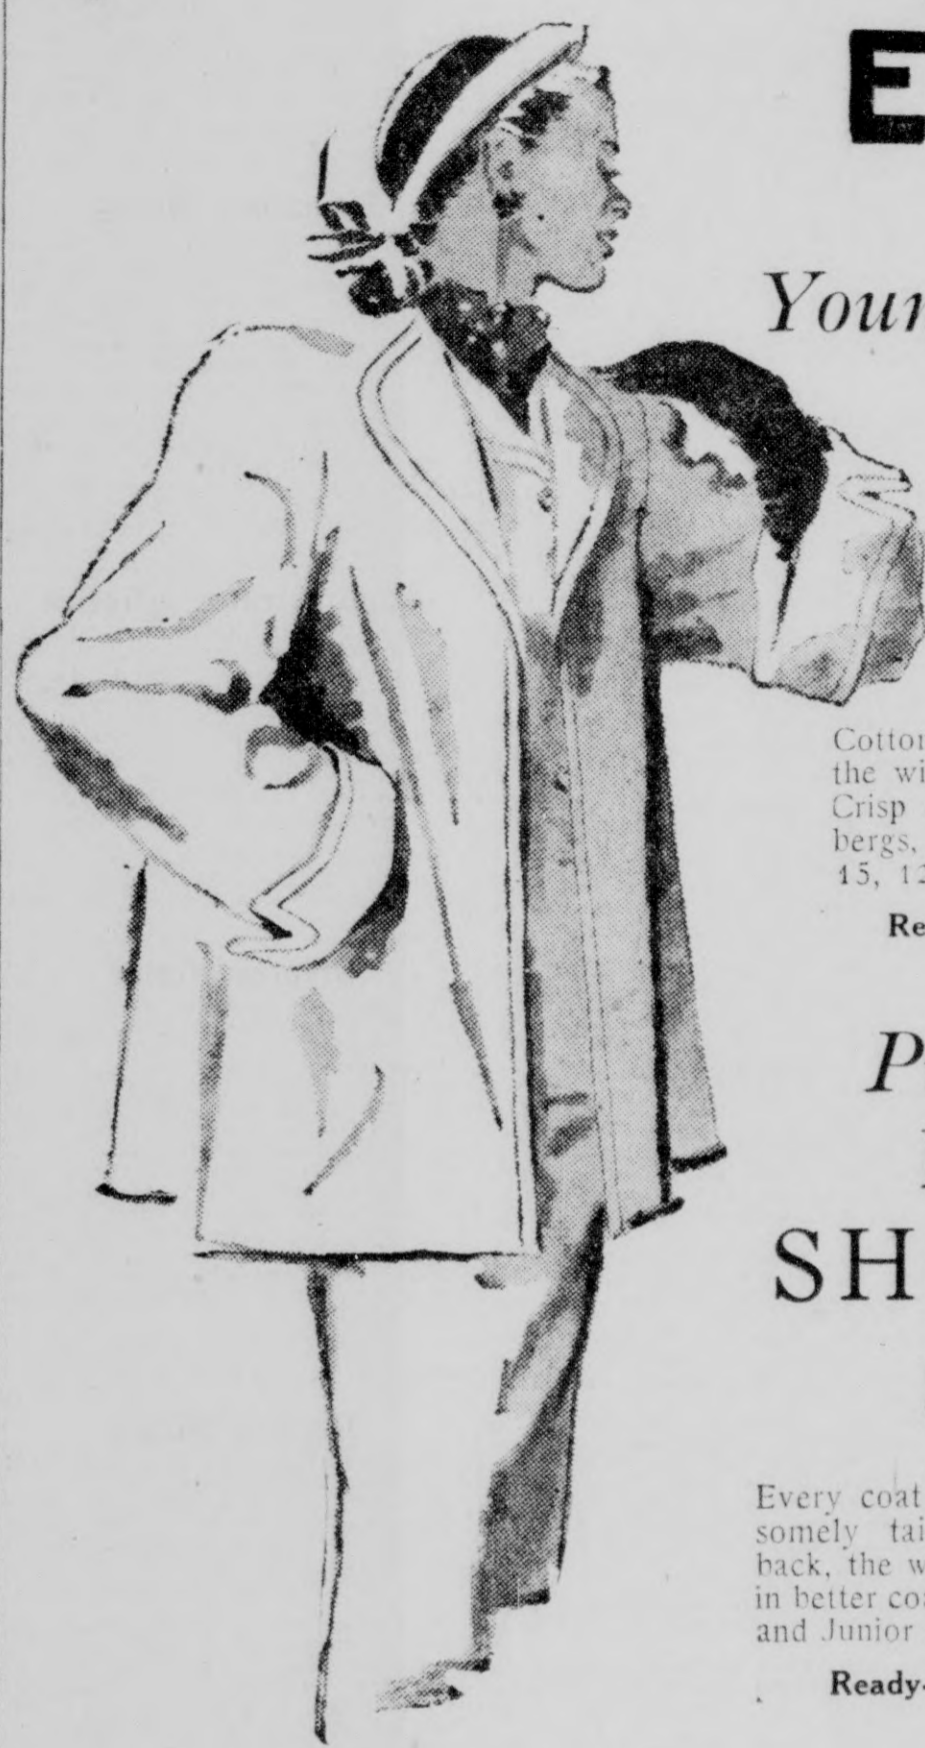

Also, he didn't want to stop for policemen who pursued him when he went the wrong way up a one-way street.

So he just kept going until he got to No. 8 fire station, where the blaze was quickly extinguished.
